DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: there are numerous typographical errors. A thorough proofreading of the specification is requested.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claims 3 and 4 are objected to because of the following informalities: claim 3, 4 "brought contact" should be "brought into contact", line 4; claim 4, "inline", line 4. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the first and second rollers" in line 6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1746

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless – (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Doecke (US Patent No. 3,726,581).

Doecke discloses the washing chamber, rack (Fig. 1), plurality of guide rollers fixed to both walls (Fig. 3, Items 25), a guide rail (23) fixed between rollers, height adjustments means (18) for moving the rack upward and downward slides on the guide rail (col. 3, see entire document). Doecke further discloses the supporter (19) and the guide panel (21) and first and second support parts (Fig. 5-7; Items 31, 32, 41, 42) to fix the supporter and a roller (22) fixed to the guide panel to slide along the guide rail.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 and 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Austin (US Patent No. 5,657,878) in view of Doecke.

Austin discloses an adjustable height dishwasher rack (12), guide rollers (18), which would be on both sides to properly raise and lower the rack evenly. Austin also discloses a guide rail (16), and a height adjustment means, which slides on the guide rail (see Fig. 2, 3). Austin also discloses a supporter (22), guide panel (26), first and second support parts (46, 44). Austin further discloses the first support part having a first (Fig. 3, Item 72) and second fixing portion (see Fig. 3, Item 46), and the second support part having a first incline portion at the guide panel (see Fig. 3, Item 44) and second incline portion (Item 74; col. 3-4). Austin further discloses a button (82, 84), and the material would have some flexibility (Fig. 3, 4). Austin also discloses hooks attaching the supporter and wires and protrusions having a hook and ribs supporting the protrusions (see Fig. 15). Although Austin does not describe the dishwasher parts being plastic, plastic material is commonly used to make dishwasher parts and one of ordinary skill could foresee their use in this dishwasher as well. Austin does not specifically disclose the guide rail between first and second rollers. However, Doepke discloses first and second supportive rollers and it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Austin with the rollers shown by Doepke for the additional support.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8 and 9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art not referred to are Kauffman (US 3768883), Clark (US 3822085), Good (US 5860716), Guth (US 3726580), Kolb (DE 19954471), Fumagalli (EP 1161917), Miller (US 6247771), Taniwaki (US 4138173), Altun (WO 02/49495), Welch (US
